

January 28-February 10, 2008

EVENTS

Participate in Global Warming Initiative on Campus

Western Nevada College will participate in a national teach-in about global warming scheduled this week at colleges, universities and high schools around the nation. Events will be at the Carson City campus, and are open to students, faculty, staff and the community. Faculty members are also encouraged to spend 10 to 15 minutes of class time on Thursday, Jan. 31, to discuss global warming. Events include:

Wednesday, Jan. 30

"Video Conference with energy and environmental policy staff from the office of U.S. Sen. Harry Reid"

Noon-1 pm Marlette Hall – Cedar Building

Thursday, Jan. 31

"Video Presentation - "Focus the Nation: 2% Solution"

11 am –Noon - Sarah Winnemucca Hall – Aspen Building

"WNC Faculty Panel Discussion on Global Warming"

12:15-1:15 pm - Sarah Winnemucca Hall – Aspen Building

"Continuing Conversation on Global Warming"

1:15-2:15 pm - Lifted Cafe – Aspen Building

<http://www.wnc.edu/news/2008-01-28b.php>

ARTS

Fallon Students Copy Picasso

Gil Martin's Fallon campus art students in the fall Painting I and II classes created an impressive life-size copy of Picasso's "Night Fishing" painting. The 8-foot by 13-foot piece is featured in the Virgil Getto Hall Gallery through Friday, Feb. 1.

Latinos in Nevada – Lecture to Profile Changes

Thursday, Feb. 7 – 7 pm

WNC Carson City – Marlette Hall

Admission - Free

University of Nevada, Reno Professor Daniel Enrique Perez will speak about what the future may hold for Nevada's Latino population. He will discuss the fast rate of growth in this segment of the Silver State's population, and how Latinos are helping to shape our state's cultural landscape. The program is part of the college's Faces, Voices and Stories cultural series.

Western Nevada Musical Theatre Company

"Annie Get Your Gun" to Open on Stage

The Western Nevada Musical Theatre Company brings the latest Tony Award-winning revival version of this Broadway favorite to the Carson City Community Center in seven performances, February 8 through 17. The story of sharpshooter Annie Oakley falling in love with her rival, Frank Butler, is animated with non-stop hits: Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better, I Got the Sun in the Morning, They Say It's Wonderful, There's No Business Like Show Business and more. Tickets & information: 445-4249

<http://www.wnc.edu/news/2008-01-29a.php>

Fallon Gallery to Show Children's Work

WNC Fallon will host two art exhibits by local grade-schoolers. Third and fourth graders will show February 4-15, followed by fifth and sixth graders, who will exhibit February 18-29.

ATHLETICS

Wildcats Baseball Team Splits Season Openers

Western's Wildcats baseball team began the 2008 season 1-2 after its first weekend of play in Las Vegas. The Cats rolled over South Mountain Community College of Arizona 16-6 on Friday before falling to the team in the final two games of a three-game series.

Western plays a four-game series against Pima Community College of Tucson this weekend in Las Vegas. See schedule and scores at

<http://www.wnc.edu/athletics/baseball/season.php>

CAMPUS CORNER

"Have a Heart" to Help Others

Information: Any first-year nursing student, Ciera Staggs, Aaren Porteur, or Marge Konieczny (x4413)

WNC first-year nursing students will be selling "hearts" for $2 throughout the month of February as a combination class/community fund-raiser. $1 of each sale will be donated to the American Heart Association, and the paper hearts will be displayed on campus bulletin boards.

HOLD THE DATE

"Golf for Greenwave Graduates!"

What: Greater Nevada Mortgage Services & WNC Fallon Golf Tournament

When: Saturday, April 26

Where: Golf Course @ Fallon – 2655 Country Club Drive

Information: 423-7565 – Bus Scharmann